The Trenton Republic has been boasting of its big lot of cherries on a small branch brought into that office recently. Mrs. Alice Belle Hays brought us in a small branch, eleven inches in length, from a cherry tree on Shirley farm east of town. On the first four inches of the branch there are 46 perfectly developed cherries and on the entire branch there are 76 cherries and a cluster of 4 cherries was broken off in breaking the branch from the tree. They are in our office and will be shown to any one doubting this story. Who can beat this?

Progressive Driving Party.

Something of a novelty, gotten up through the efforts of Mr. J. C. McGrew, Jr., was enjoyed by nine couples Monday evening. It was called a progressive drive, and is only the second one so far as we know that has taken place in our city. The party was chaperoned by Mr. Walter Waddell and Miss Mary Blackwell and Mr. Jesse Crenshaw and Miss Mary Silver. The special feature of the drive was "swappin' gals." Mr. Waddell carried a trumpet and at intervals he would sound the order to change partners. In passing through lover's lane each young gentleman changed partners three times.

In the party beside the chaperones were Mr. J. C. McGrew, Jr., and Miss Eugenia Kriehn; Mr. Paul Rankin and Miss Myrtle Shelby; Mr. Thomas Thomas and Miss Bessie Bowman; Mr. Walter Reeder and Miss Daisy Thornton; Mr. George Kerdoff and Miss Ruhannah Seacree; Mr. Tom Shelby and Miss Katie Hays; Mr. Clyde Hall and Miss Leah Chew; Mr. Hubert Bates and Miss Estelle Carson; Mr. Frank Slaughter and Miss Arline Burden.

On the drive they stopped at Mr. Walter Waddell's "Pleasant View" stock farm and partook of a delightful luncheon prepared by the young ladies of the party. The lawn at Mr. Waddell's beautiful country residence is an ideal place for a picnic, and the picnic and entire drive was highly enjoyed by all the party.
